

Celebrate Presidents Day with Photography Exhibition on George Washington's Headquarters

By ASMP February 19, 2018 Current News

Editor's Note: The exhibit of 18" x 24" photographs opened on Feb. 17th and continues until the end of this year.

MORRISTOWN, NJ – The museum at New Jersey's Morristown National Historical Park kicks off Presidents Day with the debut solo exhibition George Washington's Headquarters: Photographs by Xiomáro, curated by Jude M. Pfister, D.Litt, the park's Chief of Cultural Resources. Admission is free and the 24 large images of the Ford Mansion, which served as Washington's headquarters, will be on view from February 17 to December 28, 2018.

The exhibition is part of the grand opening celebration of the museum's new "Discover History Center." A reception and a talk by the artist and curator will be scheduled for the spring. Free gallery talks will be given by Xiomáro on February 17, 18, and 19. A free limited edition exhibit ebook of photographs is available at www.xiomaro.com.