THURSDAY

"Weir Was Here -- Secret Rooms, Doors and Windows" photo exhibit: Time: 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Location: Harold B. Lee Library's Auditorium Gallery. This solo exhibit, by New York photographer and former Artist-in-Residence Xiomáro (pronounced "SEE-oh-MAH-ro"), features photographs from the first artistic collection documenting the beauty and textures of the interiors of Julian Alden Weir's house and studio. Weir was one of the founders of American Impressionism and his house and studio are part of what is now Weir Farm National Historic Site in Connecticut. Admission to the exhibit and to the gallery talk is free of charge. Gallery hours are Monday to Saturday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. All prints on exhibit are available for sale and help fund continuing exhibits of the "Weir Was Here" collection.
