George Washington's Headquarters: Photographs by Xiomáro

Morristown National Historical Park (NHP) invites the public to view the exhibition George Washington's Headquarters: Photographs by Xiomáro. The 22 large images of the Ford Mansion – Washington's base of operations during the Revolutionary War winter of 1779-1780 – are on view in the museum until December 28, 2018. The exhibition of Xio's photographs of Washington's Revolutionary War headquarters highlights the house's dual role as a residence.

Xiomáro (pronounced "SEE-oh-MAH-ro") is an internationally-recognized artist and speaker whose photography has been covered by The New York Times, The Boston Globe, and CBS Eyewitness News. His work has been widely exhibited at venues such as Harvard University and New York City's Fraunces Tavern Museum. Next year, Arcadia Publishing is releasing Xio's photo book, Weir Farm National Historic Site, about Julian Alden Weir, the father of American Impressionist painting.

A free eBook of the photographs is available at www.xiomaro.com. The exhibit is at the Morristown National Historical Park's Washington Headquarters Museum, 30 Washington Place, Morristown, NJ. Admission is free. For more information, visit www.nps.gov/morr.
